

THE BOSS QUESTIONNAIRE

For each of the following statements, choose from one of the 5 answers given. Reply as spontaneously as possible by thinking of your own situation in the last week. There are no right or wrong answers.

NEVER RARELY SOMETIMES OFTEN ALWAYS

I have to consider my sensitive skin when I buy my clothes and underwear.
I have to consider my sensitive skin when I buy cosmetics.
Having sensitive skin stops me from eating certain foods.
I have given up hobbies, outings and holidays because of my sensitive skin.
I find it hard to tolerate air conditioning because of my sensitive skin.
I find it hard to cope with urban pollution because of my sensitive skin.
Blushing for no reason or after I become emotional embarrasses me when I am with other people.
My face often looks very red in photographs so I avoid appearing in them.
It is impossible for me to wear jewellery (bracelets, neck chains or chain bracelets) that is not made of gold.
My face turns red when I exercise, walk quickly or climb stairs.
Wearing woollen clothes close to my skin is unbearable.
I have to consider my sensitive skin when I choose my clothes in the morning.
I have to choose my own washing powder because some washing powders can cause a skin reaction.
When I sleep away from home, I take my own soap and toiletries with me because I cannot use other people's.
*Rating of each question	0	1	2	3	4
*TOTAL SCORE

*These lines do not appear on the questionnaire filled by respondents.

TOTAL SCORE: IMPACT OF SENSITIVE SKIN ON THE PATIENT'S DAILY LIFE

0: NO IMPACT

56: MAXIMAL IMPACT